

Talent Auction is Saturday, May 7, 2011

Fill out this Promissory Note today!

Everyone knows SNUUC members like to eat, drink, compete and help each other in any & every way possible. This is your chance to offer a social event, service or product for auction. Use your creativity to think of new ideas. Get together with a fellow SNUUC member and see what you come up with. When filling out this note, make your offering sound too good to resist. It will really heat up the bidding! Need ideas? Ask the person next to you what they would like to see offered. Also see the back of this page for suggestions or stop by the Ways & Means table.

Act now! Promissory Notes are due Sunday, April 3rd. Please be prompt so we will have sufficient time to prepare & distribute the program before the auction so everyone has a chance to bid. Can't make it? You don't have to miss out, appoint a proxy to do your bidding!

To avoid confusion, please follow these pricing guidelines:

*For "Adults Only" events – please have a "per person" price only, no couple discount.

For "Families Welcome" events, please give "per person" & "per family" prices only, rather than separate prices for adults and children.
